

Valedictory function of Short Term Training Program

BASICS OF STOCK MARKET AND TECHNICAL ANALYSIS

Sheila Raheja School of Business Management & Research (SRBS) is conducting a Certification Program on the Basics of Stock Market and Technical Analysis. This program is meant for all.

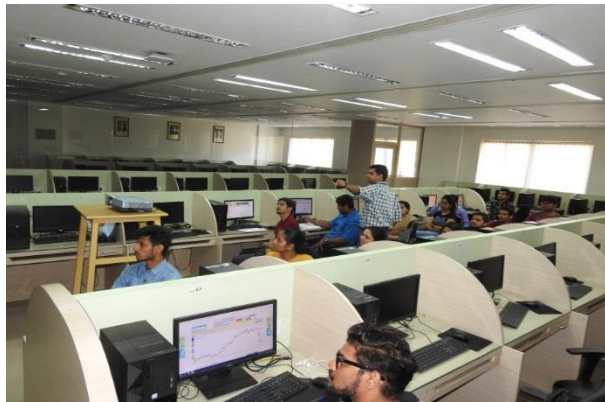

This certification program is of 8 days (i.e. Only on Saturday) and for 24 hours, and conducted and designed by Prof. Rahul B. Sanghavi. The said program benefits to all participants, as it helps them to build up their career in Equity Research, Investment Banking, and Portfolio Management and at the same time this program will help them to become an entrepreneur in the investment field.

Sheila Raheja School of Business Management & Research (SRBS) conducted first batch on this certificate program on April, 13 2019 with 21 participants and was successfully completed in July, 6 2019. This course covered various modules of Basics of Stock Market and Technical Analysis.

It is not only a certification program, but it is a medium through which we are trying to boost up the practical knowledge of the learner.
