The Institution Innovation Council of Sheila Raheja School of Business Management and Research organized a Master Class Session on “VC Funding Opportunities for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs”.

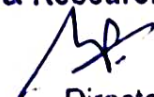

The speaker of the session was Mr. Dinesh L Bhatia, seasoned Chartered Accountant, boasting over nine years of extensive experience in the financial sector. Mr. Bhatia's presentation focused on the fundamental aspects of securing venture capital, including identifying the right investors, crafting compelling pitches, and understanding the due diligence process. He also shared insights into the current VC landscape, highlighting emerging trends and sectors that are attracting significant investment.

Mr. Bhatia's real-world examples and actionable advice were particularly valuable, offering students a roadmap to navigate the complexities of VC funding.

Objectives

- To provide a comprehensive understanding of the venture capital (VC) funding landscape to the aspiring entrepreneurs and startup founders.
- To understand the due diligence process and highlight emerging trends and opportunities within the VC sector, ultimately empowering attendees to make informed decisions and successfully attract funding for their ventures.
- To equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively navigate the complexities of securing VC investment
