The Institution Innovation Council of Sheila Raheja School of Business Management and Research organized a Session on National Youth Day. It was organized with great enthusiasm, paying tribute to Swami Vivekananda, the youth icon and spiritual leader, on his birth anniversary. The speaker invited for the session was Mr. Neeraj Chaudharkar, whose motivational words of wisdom inspired the audience towards social consciousness.

Objectives

- To provide an opportunity to instill values such as discipline, selflessness, and dedication among students which encourages them to embody the principles advocated by Swami Vivekananda.
- To inspire students to take on leadership roles, be it in academics, extracurricular activities, or community service, fostering a sense of responsibility and accountability.
- To promote social responsibility among students in order to instill a sense of duty towards society.

Learning Outcomes

- Students were sensitized on Swami Vivekananda's values and system such as discipline, integrity, and selflessness.
- Students understood how to take on social responsibility and a sense of duty towards society.
- Students understood the importance of leadership qualities in various aspects of their life.
- The participants were inspired by the expert speaker who instilled a great sense of pride and identity towards our nation.
