The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) of Sheila Raheja School of Business Management and Research (SRBS) organized an online workshop titled "Protecting Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) and IP Management for Startups" on 16th April 2025. The workshop was conducted through Google Meet and attended by students of the Master of Management Studies.

The session was led by CS (Dr.) Swapnil Shenvi, Assistant Professor at Narsee Monjee Institute of Management Studies (NMIMS), a distinguished academician and expert in the domain of corporate law and intellectual property rights.

Dr. Swapnil Shenvi delivered an engaging and informative session focused on the strategic role of IPRs in the startup ecosystem. Key highlights of the session included:

- An overview of IPRs including patents, copyrights, trademarks, and geographical indicators.
- Real-world examples of how startups have leveraged IP to build competitive advantage.
- The importance of early-stage IP planning for startups.
- Q&A session where students actively interacted and clarified their doubts.

Objectives

- To introduce the fundamental concepts of Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) and their relevance in today's knowledge-driven economy.
- To create awareness among management students about various types of IPRs such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, and designs.
- To highlight the importance of IPR protection for startups, especially in terms of safeguarding innovation
- To promote a culture of innovation and legal literacy among students aspiring to become future entrepreneurs or business leaders.

Outcomes

- Participants gained a clear understanding of different forms of Intellectual Property and their strategic importance for startups.
- Attendees understood common challenges and pitfalls startups face regarding IP and how to proactively manage them.

Summary

From my early school days, I've always been the go-to problem solver—whether it was cracking academic puzzles for my classmates or making sense of complex concepts. My teacher once told my mother that I was a “child of measured words,” and that quality has stuck with me ever since. I let my work speak for itself, whether in the classroom or beyond.

Fast forward to today, and I've had the privilege of teaching over 18,000 students, helping them navigate the intricate worlds of Taxation, Finance, and Law. Currently, I'm making a difference at SVKM's Narsee Monjee Institute of Management Studies (NMIMS) Deemed-to-be University, where I've tailored my academic expertise to give students the tools they need to excel in the professional world. Along the way, I've collaborated with renowned institutions in and around Mumbai.

But here's where the story takes a twist—education is evolving, and so am I. I'm a PhD in Business Policy and Administration and have become a Generative AI Trainer for Teachers. Yes, I'm bringing the future into the classroom, one algorithm at a time! My passion lies in helping educators leverage AI to create smarter, more engaging learning experiences. It's about training the trainers, so they can teach the future.

In addition to teaching and training, I'm a Microsoft Certified Excel Associate (because who doesn't love a good spreadsheet?) and have trained countless professionals in Excel to ensure they can excel at work, too. As an author, I've authored and co-authored 5 books and contributed 14 research papers over the past 8 years. I'd like to think of myself as a lifelong learner, committed to both teaching and researching the intersection of education, finance, and technology.

When it comes to my approach, you could say I'm obsessed with organization, my time management is "in Excel-lent" shape, and I'm always ready to bend over backwards to help others achieve their dreams. Whether it's finding innovative solutions in the classroom or guiding industry professionals to navigate the latest tech, I'm here to make learning happen—no matter the medium, no matter the challenge.

So, if you're looking to connect with someone who thrives on problem-solving, whether it's academia or the industry, feel free to reach out. Let's make things click!

Please share any suggestions for improvement or topics you would like to see covered in future workshops.

Nice Session

Tips and tricks to crack interview
Suggestions for Improvement:  It would be better to conduct such workshops in offline mode instead of online, as many students face network issues. Due to connectivity problems, they are unable to properly grasp the knowledge being shared. Topics to be Covered in Future Workshops:  - Step-by-step guide to filing patents and trademarks for startups - How to protect software and app-based intellectual property - Strategies for monetizing IP assets - Legal support and government schemes available for IP protection in India
Offline workshops preferred
Very learning
It was informative; consider adding case studies or practical filing tips in future sessions.
Offer actionable steps or plans to implement the suggested improvement, making it feasible and pragmatic for the team or organization

Subject: Invitation as Guest Speaker for Workshop on "Protecting Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) and IP Management for Startups"

Dear Dr. Swapnil,

Warm greetings from Sheila Raheja School of Business Management and Research!

We are pleased to inform you that our Institution Innovation Council (IIC) is organizing a workshop titled "Protecting Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) and IP Management for Startups", aimed at fostering awareness and understanding importance of IP protection, especially among our students.

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to be the Guest Speaker for this session. Given your expertise and experience in the field of intellectual property and corporate law, we believe your insights would greatly benefit the participants and enrich the discussion.

The workshop is scheduled to be held online via Google Meet on Wednesday, 16th April 2025, from 11:00 AM onwards.

We would be honored by your acceptance and look forward to your affirmative response. Thank you for considering our invitation.

Warm regards,

Dr. Harish Kumar S. Purohit
