The Institution's Innovation Council of Sheila Raheja School of Business Management and Research organized a session to celebrate National Youth Day commemorating the 163rd birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, who is considered as a great philosopher and youth icon. Due to the ongoing examination schedule, our institute celebrated National Youth Day on 21st January 2025.

The event aimed to inspire students with his teachings and encourage them to embrace his ideals of self-confidence, service, and national development.

The celebration was marked by an expert talk delivered by Mr. Eshaan Shriram Ganpule, a devoted follower of Swami Vivekananda and a social activist. The event was attended by students and faculty members.

- Mr. Eshaan Ganpule enlightened the audience with insights into Swami Vivekananda's philosophy, emphasizing on youth empowerment, spiritual and moral value, service to society, self-discipline and hard work.

Objectives of the session -

- To inspire the Youth – Encourage young people to follow Swami Vivekananda's ideals of self-confidence, hard work, and dedication.
- To encourage Character Building – Instill values like discipline, integrity, and service to society.
- To understand the path of spirituality and Ethics in our life.

Outcomes of the session -

- Enhanced Awareness – Greater awareness of Swami Vivekananda's teachings, emphasizing self-reliance and perseverance.
- Awareness towards morality, ethics and its importance in our life.
- Fostering a mindset geared toward self-initiative and continuous improvement in both education and career planning

The talk was interactive, with students engaging Q&A session where they discussed how to apply Vivekananda's principles in our day-to-day life.
