“Navratri” is one of the most significant Hindu festivals, celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm across India. It honors the divine feminine energy and is dedicated to the worship of Goddess Durga, who is revered in her nine forms. Each day represents a different manifestation of the goddess, symbolizing various virtues such as courage, knowledge, and prosperity. Cultural committee of Sheila Raheja School of Business management and Research successfully organized a vibrant and energetic Garba Raas on the occasion of the spirit of Navratri with great enthusiasm and participation. The event aimed to bring students, faculty and staff together to promote cultural unity and celebrate Indian.

The event witnessed participation from over 309 students and faculty members, dressed in traditional Garba and Dandiya attire. The vibrant outfits and jewelry added a cultural essence to the evening. The event began with an opening prayer and an invocation dance dedicated to Goddess Durga. The highlight of the evening was the open floor Garba and Dandiya rounds. Participants danced to a mix of traditional Gujarati folk songs. To add excitement, competitions like "Best Costume" and "Best Dance Performance" were held. Winners were awarded given prizes in the form of chocolates and pen, encouraging more active participation.

The organizing committee, comprising students and faculty received special appreciation for their tireless efforts in planning and executing the event by the Director Sir Dr. Harish Kumar S. Purohit.
