The Institution Innovation Council of Sheila Raheja School of Business Management and Research organized a session to celebrate National Youth Day, commemorating the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, a revered philosopher, thinker, and youth icon. Owing to the academic schedule, the programme was conducted on 14th January 2026.

The objective of the session was to create awareness among students about the relevance of Swami Vivekananda's teachings in contemporary life and to encourage youth to imbibe values such as self-discipline, ethical conduct, social responsibility, and commitment towards personal growth.

The celebration featured an expert talk by Mr. Prashant Mali, a student activist and social worker, currently pursuing his final year of LLB at Government Law College, Mumbai. He has been actively involved in student-centric and social initiatives since 2017 and has held several leadership responsibilities at various levels.

Mr. Prashant Mali addressed the students by sharing practical insights on youth responsibility, character building, and the importance of values and ethics in shaping one's personal and professional life. His session emphasized the role of young individuals in nation building, self-development, and contributing positively to society. The programme was attended by students and faculty members and was well received.

Objectives of the session -

- To introduce students to the relevance of Swami Vivekananda's ideals in the contemporary social, academic, and professional environment.
- To sensitize students to the importance of ethical conduct, self-discipline, and personal responsibility in shaping their character and decision-making.
- To encourage students to reflect on self-development, social responsibility, and value-based living through real-life experiences shared during the session.
- To create awareness among students about the role of youth as responsible citizens, contributing positively to society.

Outcomes of the session -

- Students were exposed to the thoughts and teachings of Swami Vivekananda and their relevance in contemporary life.
- The session created awareness about the importance of morality, ethics, and value-based conduct in our daily life.

- Students were encouraged to reflect on self-discipline, personal responsibility, and positive life choices.
- The programme contributed towards sensitizing students to the importance of self-development and responsible participation in the development of society and nation building.

The talk was interactive, with students engaging Q&A session where they discussed how to apply Vivekananda’s principles in our day-to-day life.

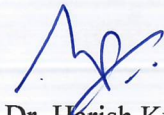

The event concluded with a brief address by the Institute’s Director, Dr. Harish Kumar S. Purohit, who highlighted key life lessons that students could adopt in their personal and academic lives, emphasizing values, discipline, and continuous self-improvement. This was followed by a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Amit Ashok Bansod, expressing appreciation to the speaker and participants for their contribution in making the programme a success.

About the Speaker

Mr. Prashant Mali is a committed student activist and social worker, currently pursuing his final year of LLB at Government Law College, Mumbai, after completing his B.Sc. in Chemistry from Solapur University. Since 2017, he has been actively engaged in student-centric and community initiatives, demonstrating a sustained commitment to youth development and social awareness.

Over the years, Mr. Mali has held several leadership and organizational responsibilities that have strengthened his understanding of student issues, community engagement, and grassroots coordination. His involvement in various initiatives has enabled him to work closely with diverse groups, particularly young individuals, fostering dialogue on education, ethics, and social responsibility.

Through his experiences, he consistently emphasizes the importance of character building, discipline, and value-based decision-making. His interactions encourage students to develop a sense of responsibility, self-awareness, and confidence in navigating academic and personal challenges. Mr. Mali's work reflects a balanced approach towards personal growth and meaningful contribution to society.

Did you learn anything new or inspiring from the event? If yes, please share.
Yes the thing i learn is about concentration
To learn and explore in life
Help others
The session was inspiring .
Yes, will do more activities
Yes we learn how to face the problem in life which will come in future
How we are the pillar and future of this country.
Good thought process
Change yourselves
Yes our responsibility towards our country
Work hard and believe in yourself
Use less social media
Yes i think that sir was right we must learn new skill in free time and don't waste time
Feel motivated towards my goals
Not for us only but also for nation
If you develop yourself first then you can also make development in others.
Expand your thought process
Become who you are meant to be—and the world will rise with you. In another words -"Build yourself—and the world will begin to take shape" .
A great learning which i learned is that u should never give up
Yes our responsibility towards our country
