The Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (DLLE) organized the Commemoration Day of Guru Tegh Bahadur Singh, popularly known as “Hind Ki Chadar,” to honor his immense sacrifice and contribution toward protecting religious freedom and promoting harmony in society.

On this occasion, a short documentary highlighting the life, teachings, and sacrifice of Guru Tegh Bahadur Singh was screened to the students. The documentary provided valuable insights into his courageous stand for the protection of religious freedom and his role in upholding the principles of justice, tolerance, and humanity.

A musical tribute titled “Hind Ki Chadar” was played, which reflected the spirit of bravery, sacrifice, and devotion associated with Guru Tegh Bahadur Singh. The music created a reflective and respectful atmosphere, allowing students to understand the historical and cultural significance of his sacrifice.

The programme helped students appreciate the values of courage, selflessness, and respect for religious freedom, inspiring them to uphold these ideals in their lives.
