- Time: 11.00 am onwards
- No. of students participated: UG-120 students and PG 43 students
- Mode of Conduct: Indoor
- Number of Faculty members that Participated: 05 faculties

The Department of Life Long Learning and Extension (DLLE) had organized a Constitution Day celebration on 26th November 2025 to honour the adoption of the Indian Constitution. A short video on the “Making of the Indian Constitution” was screened, offering insights into the contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar and the Constituent Assembly. It helped students understand the rigorous and democratic process that shaped the nation's Constitution.

Following the video screening, students and faculty collectively participated in the Reading of the Preamble, reaffirming their commitment to the ideals of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

The primary objective of organising this session was to inculcate constitutional values among students and encourage them to understand, respect, and uphold the guiding principles of the nation.

Objectives

- To create awareness among students about the significance of the Indian Constitution.
- To promote the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity as enshrined in the Preamble.
- To encourage students to understand the historical process of drafting the Constitution.
- To instill responsible citizenship and respect for constitutional principles.

Outcomes

- Students gained a deeper understanding of the constitutional drafting process.
- The activity fostered respect and awareness about constitutional values and national identity.
- Reading the Preamble enhanced students' sense of civic responsibility and unity.
