- Time: 12.00 pm onwards
- No. of students participated: 60 students
- Mode of Conduct: Indoor
- Number of Faculty members that Participated: 14 faculties

POSH Awareness Programme was conducted on 24th December 2025 through a Street Play in the college campus. The programme aimed at sensitizing students and staff about the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, 2013 and promoting a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment.

The street play depicted real-life situations highlighting various forms of sexual harassment, its impact on individuals, and the importance of timely reporting. Through impactful dialogues and relatable scenarios, the performers effectively communicated key provisions of the POSH Act, including rights and responsibilities, preventive measures, and the role of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC).

The primary objective of conducting this programme was to create awareness about sexual harassment, educate participants about legal provisions under the POSH Act, 2013 and encourage responsible behavior and mutual respect within the workplace and educational institutions.

Objectives

- To create awareness about the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, 2013 among students and staff in an engaging and relatable manner.
- To educate participants about what constitutes sexual harassment at the Work place and in educational institutions.
- To highlight the rights and responsibilities of employees, students, and employers under the POSH Act, 2013.
- To explain the complaint mechanism and redressal process, including the role of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC).
- To promote a culture of respect, dignity, and gender sensitivity through real-life scenarios portrayed in the street play.

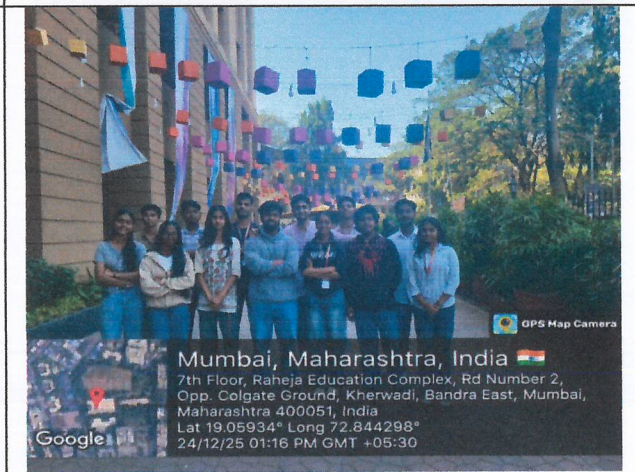

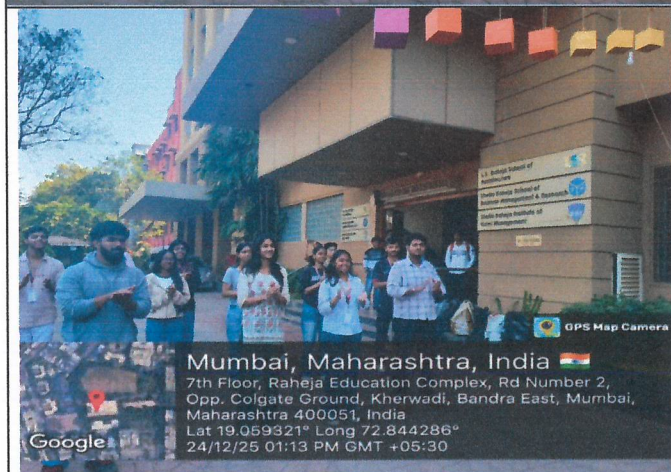

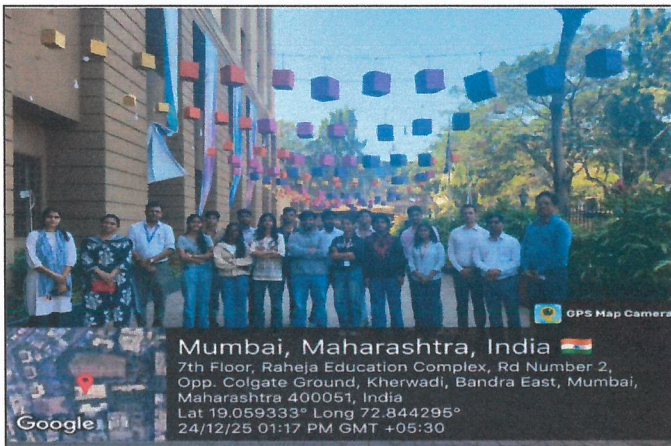

Outcomes

- Participants developed a clear understanding of the POSH Act and its significance in ensuring a safe environment.
- The street play effectively sensitized the audience to different forms of sexual harassment through practical examples.
- Increased awareness about the procedure for reporting complaints and seeking support.
- The programme fostered a sense of collective responsibility toward maintaining a harassment-free workplace and campus.
